

KOGAN.COM LIMITED

Corporate Governance Statement

In order to be listed on the exchange operated by ASX Limited (the ASX), an entity is required to provide a statement disclosing the extent to which it will follow, as at the date of its admission to the official list of the ASX, the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council (the Recommendations). The Recommendations are set out in the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3rd Edition).

Responsibility for Kogan.com Limited's (Kogan) proper corporate governance rests with the board of directors of Kogan.com (the Board). This statement describes Kogan's position in relation to each of the Recommendations as at the date of admission to the official list of the ASX on 7 July 2016 and applies the Statement's application to the reporting period ended 30 June 2016 and up to the date of the Directors' Report as contained in the 2016 Annual Report.

ASX Recommendation	Compliance (Yes/No)	Explanation
Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
A listed entity should establish and disclose the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and how their performance is monitored and evaluated.
Recommendation 1.1: A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Yes	The Board Kogan's constitution (the Constitution) provides that the business of Kogan will be managed by the Board. The Board operates under a board charter, a copy of which is available on Kogan's website (the Board Charter). The key role and responsibilities of the Board are set out in the Board Charter. A copy of the Board Charter is available on the Company's corporate website www.kogancorporate.com Senior management The Board Charter also sets out the key role and responsibilities of senior management. The Board Charter articulates the division of responsibilities between the Board and management. It is expected that the division of functions between the Board and senior management will vary over time as Kogan evolves. To assist in the execution of the Board's responsibilities, the Board has established the following 2 committees of the Board (each a Board Committee): the Audit and Risk Management Committee and the Remuneration and Nomination Committee. The key responsibilities of each Board Committee are set out in their respective charters (which are also annexed to the Board Charter and available on www.kogancorporate.com), containing the terms of reference of each Board Committee. The Board Committees do not take action or make decisions on behalf of the Board unless specifically mandated by prior Board authority to do so.
Recommendation 1.2: A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Yes	The Constitution sets out the process of appointment, retirement and rotation of directors. In accordance with the Board Charter, before a person is appointed as a director or is put forward to shareholders as a candidate for election as a director, Kogan will ensure that appropriate checks are undertaken, including checks as to the person's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee is responsible for reviewing potential candidates for directorship and making a recommendation to the Board. In addition, each candidate for directorship is required to be interviewed by the Chair (and any other person that the Chair considers appropriate).

		The Board will provide shareholders with all material information in the possession of Kogan relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a person as a director.
Recommendation 1.3: A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	In accordance with the Board Charter, the appointment of any new director of Kogan and each senior executive will be made by, and in accordance with, a formal letter of appointment / written agreement setting out the key terms and conditions relative to that appointment. Each of Kogan's executive directors and senior executives have entered into services agreements with Kogan, and each of Kogan's non-executive directors have signed appointment letters with Kogan.
Recommendation 1.4: The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	In accordance with the Board Charter, the decision to appoint or remove the company secretary is to be made or approved by the Board. The company secretary of Kogan is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board. The key role and responsibilities of the company secretary are set out in the Board Charter.
Recommendation 1.5: A listed entity should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them, and either: (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (2) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act.	No	Kogan does not have a formal diversity policy. However, Kogan is committed to creating a culture within the workplace that reflects the highest standards of ethics, integrity and behaviour, and has adopted a formal code of conduct which outlines how Kogan expects its employees and directors to behave during the course of their employment. (a copy of this Code of Conduct is available on the corporate website www.kogancorporate.com). Kogan is satisfied that its current policies and procedures are suitable given its resources, size and operations.
